As Chaplain Advocate in the Carlisle community, I work alongside others in local organizations including social service, criminal justice, educational, faith-based and secular. As individuals we work together as teams to plan programs, discuss research, and aid those who find themselves in difficult life situations.

As President of Kiwanis, I attended and led (by Zoom) two March Kiwanis Club meetings (16 and 30) and another on April 13. As President of Kiwanis—Carlisle, I prepared the agendas and led the Kiwanis Board meetings (March 11 and April 8). I made contacts for future sites for Kiwanis meetings in May (either LeTort Park (scheduled through Carlisle Parks and Recreation) or continued using Zoom for Speakers on May 11 & 25 for Kiwanis Luncheons with speaker presentations.

I attended Church and Community Connections Council meeting on March 9.

I attended the Maranatha Board Meetings on March 18 and April 15.

Meeting at Barnes and Noble with local person discussing book on community leadership.

NAMI meetings on March 17 and April 15 (a Board meeting and a Family-to-Family meeting).

Cumberland County Specialty Courts Zoom Mtg. on March 17.

Carlisle Area Religious Council Meeting, March 25.

Zoom PSU/HMC — Addictions Research Discussion, April 13.

As always, if any questions, please ask about my community ministries.
